All Saints Day Celebration — October 31st In conjunction with Archbishop Golka's visit, we will hold a joyful All Saints Day Celebration for our parish families.

3:00 p.m. — Dress as Your Favorite Saint

Children are invited to come dressed as their favorite Saint. Fun activities will be provided, including coloring, puzzles, and snacks. Please avoid the kitchen area, as dinner preparations will be underway.

4:00 p.m. — Arrival of Archbishop Golka & Saint Parade.

We will welcome Archbishop Golka with a Saint Parade. Please help your child practice their Saint's name and a fun fact—such as their feast day, patronage, or a miracle associated with their Saint.

5:00 p.m. — Mass & Dinner Mass will follow the parade, and Saint costumes may be worn during Mass. Dinner will be served immediately afterward in the church fellowship hall. Please sign up for dinner in the foyer so we can get an accurate headcount. Please bring a dessert to share on our potluck dessert bar!

➤ Choir practice for Archbishop Golka's visit will be Wednesday, October 28th at 6:30pm. Newcomers are welcome!

➤ Today we celebrate Deacon Sunday! Let us show our appreciation to our Deacons by praying for them and for all those discerning this very important vocation and mission in our Church.

➤ Singles please see Bulletin Board for Catholic Fall Speed Dating!
